The SEAFARER

New York Reviews

“Written and directed by the prodigiously talented Conor McPherson, ONE OF THE FINEST ENSEMBLES TO GRACE A BROADWAY STAGE IN YEARS uncovers the soul-defining clarity within the drunkard’s haze. As unlikely as it sounds, ‘The Seafarer’ may just be THE PICK-ME-UP PLAY OF THE SEASON.”

– Ben Brantley, The New York Times

HAUNTING AND HILARIOUS!

This remarkably humane play is filled with colorful, spirited language that’s seized with gusto by an excellent five-person cast.”

– Michael Kuchwara, AP

“THIS BRILLIANT DRAMA POSITIVELY GLOWS!

– Jacques le Sourd, The Journal News

“CHILLING AND HILARIOUS!

“Simultaneously rollicking and haunting, McPherson elevates his deceptively simple premise via the richness of his dialogue, which resonates with memorable pungency.

‘THE SEAFARER’ MIGHT BE A NEW PLAY, BUT IT ALREADY HAS THE FEEL OF A TIMELESS CLASSIC.”

– Frank Sheck, The Hollywood Reporter
